

Outdoor Learning Environment North Area

This location features a fully accessible play structure with ramps and steps which simulate those students climb to enter their school buses, supportive swings, a custom built clubhouse large enough to accommodate adaptive equipment, a large glider on which multiple students can experience movement, a roller table on which students experience therapeutic pressure, spring riders and a teeter totter for multiple users, large musical instruments for auditory stimulation, and a balance beam for practice of advanced skills.

